who attended Commodity Classic.*

Farmer-led. Farmer-focused. That makes a huge difference.

Commodity Classic is unlike any other event in agriculture. Because it’s put on by farmers, not companies. Farmers determine the entire schedule—from the educational sessions to the trade show to the entertainment.

That means your entire Commodity Classic experience is focused on what you need. The questions you have. The challenges you face.

Bring your questions and curiosity to Commodity Classic. You’ll walk away with answers, ideas and a renewed energy about your operation.

Because farmers just like you have made sure you will.

Where what’s next in agriculture happens.

Be there to experience it.

It doesn't matter what you grow or how many acres you farm. Investing in Commodity Classic pays dividends all year long.

Commodity Classic is where America's best farmers come to get even better.

1) Get the answers and information you're looking for in the trade show and in educational sessions. 2) Network with and learn from farmers all across the nation—even from around the world! 3) The trade show gives you the opportunity to see what's new—and talk directly with the people bringing it to you. 4) Educational sessions are focused on what matters to your farm—right now and in the future.

In 2018, Commodity Classic will happen on TUESDAY, WEDNESDAY & THURSDAY. That means you can tack on a weekend on either end (or both!) to do some sightseeing in Anaheim and sunny Southern California.

Here's why you should be in Anaheim for the 2018 Commodity Classic:

Powerful educational sessions that will change the way you think about your farm.

A huge trade show where you get a first-hand look at the newest equipment, technology and innovation.

Thought-provoking presentations from agriculture leaders, industry experts and inspiring speakers.

Deep conversations with top representatives of the companies you do business with.

New ideas, products and services that you simply won't see at your regional farm shows.

Like-minded farmers from across the nation who share your passion for agriculture—and are happy to share their experiences and ideas.

Commodity Classic is where agribusiness showcases its newest and best. Where leading thinkers in agriculture share their insight. Where farmers come together to learn, network and have a little fun.

Invest in the future of your farm.
